Dear Ms. Saunders,

This is a request for a public record.

Reason for Request

On Thursday, May 30, 2019, the University of Washington School of Public Health published an open letter written by Dean Hilary Godwin and the deans of five other University of Washington Health Sciences schools in support of fluoridating other people's drinking water without their informed consent.

These deans collectively insisted that water fluoridation is a safe and effective public health measure "for people of all ages" and suggested that anyone indicating otherwise is guilty of spreading "misinformation". They claimed that all of the "over 204 million Americans living in fluoridated communities" are fortunate to have access to the "health and economic benefits of this vital public health measure".

The 5 additional Deans who signed this letter are:

Gary T. Chiodo, DMD, FACD, Interim Dean, School of Dentistry
Paul Ramsey, MD, Dean, School of Medicine
Azita Emami, PhD, MSN, RNT, RN, FAAN, Dean, School of Nursing
Sean D. Sullivan, BScPharm, PhD, Dean, School of Pharmacy
Edwina Uehara, PhD, MSW, Dean, School of Social Work

Description of Requested Items:

All record(s) in the possession, custody or control of the University of Washington School of Public Health (for example:downloaded to a computer, printed in hard copy, etc.) containing, or citing, any published, primary, peer-reviewed scientific research study (or studies) of fluoride exposure during pregnancy suggesting that fluoride exposure during pregnancy is safe with respect to IQ or ADHD in human offspring.

Please note that I am not interested in receiving any secondary or derivative works, such as article reviews, research reviews, or meta-analyses.

[If any records match the above description of requested records and are currently available to the public elsewhere, please provide enough information about each record so that I may identify and access each record with certainty (i.e. title, author(s), date, journal, where I may access it).]
